Rattan Essential

To Elevate Your Space

MATERIAL

Natural, sustainable rattan fibers harvested from tropical climbing palms. Known for its strength, lightweight properties, and eco-friendly profile.

STRUCTURE

Composed of durable inner core fibers and smooth outer skin strips. The material possesses inherent flexibility and resilience, capable of withstanding significant tension and pressure.

SURFACE FINISH

The surface is smoothed and finished with a protective, clear matte lacquer to enhance its natural beauty, prevent splintering, and provide resistance to wear and moisture while retaining its organic feel.

DURABILITY

The open webbing is tested for structural integrity and load-bearing capacity. It maintains its shape and tension over time, providing reliable performance in high-traffic areas.

Inspired by:

Nanna Ditzel 1957

A Timeless Danish Design
Copenhagen, 1957

Rattan Swing Chair

Some designs leave more than a visual impression — they leave a feeling. The iconic hanging form by Nanna Ditzel inspired us not only through its silhouette, but through the quiet emotion it creates: a space within a space, a gentle retreat suspended in air.

The iconic Hanging Egg Chair by Nanna Ditzel has long - been admired for its sculptural form and its sense of comfort within a suspended space. Inspired by this timeless design, Sindoro Rattan reinterprets the concept through Indonesia's rich rattan craftsmanship. We were drawn to its balance between enclosure and openness — a cocoon-like seat that feels both-intimate and light. Our Rattan Swing Chair reflects that same spirit, combining organic curves with natural woven textures. By translating the original inspiration into handcrafted rattan, we create a piece that celebrates warmth, tropical living, and artisanal heritage, while offering a relaxing retreat that gently floats within any space.
